

THE JEWISH ACADEMY

DISCIPLINE GUIDE

THE JEWISH ACADEMY

DISCIPLINE GUIDE

1. Acquire student attention without stating name
2. Show understanding of student perspective
3. Remind student of applicable rule

"I have one student who (state infraction), and I understand (state student perspective), however (state applicable rule)."

1. State student name
2. Describe student infraction in a favorable manner
3. Clarify rule with greater detail

"(Student name), I recognize that (describe infraction) because you may have (positive intention), however (state applicable rule in greater detail)."

1. Privately speak to student
 2. Inform student of current misconduct pattern
 3. Provide student with positive reinforcement
 4. Inform student of subsequent consequence
- Subsequent Consequence: Writing Assignment

"(Student name), I have already informed you of (pattern of misconduct), I know you can (positive reinforcement), I am now informing you that (state subsequent consequence)."

1. Privately speak to student
 2. Inform student of continuous misconduct pattern
 3. Provide student with positive reinforcement
 4. Inform student of current and subsequent consequence
- Current Consequence: Writing Assignment
-Subsequent Consequence: Parent/Teacher Contact

"(Student name), I have continuously informed you of (pattern of misconduct), I know you can (positive reinforcement), I am now officially informing you that (state current consequence and subsequent consequence)."

1. Privately speak to student
 2. Inform student of previous opportunities to improve
 3. Inform student of current consequence
 4. Inform student of final subsequent consequence
- Current Consequence: Parent/Teacher Contact
-Final Subsequent Consequence: The Dean

"(Student name), I have given you several opportunities to improve (misconduct), I am now officially informing you that (state current consequence) and if this misconduct continues then (state final subsequent consequence)."

1. Privately speak to student
2. Inform student of Final Consequence
3. Ensure student arrives at Dean's Office

"(Student name), please gather your belongings and report to the Dean's Office."