I know that I am a good student. I want to make good choices and I want to put in my best effort to succeed. The teachers and staff at the Jewish Academy believe and care for me, even when I make mistakes.

Today in class, I made a mistake. I will describe my mistake.

The next time I am in class, I plan to make a better choice. In the future, I plan to

I know this may be challenging. However, I will do better next time because
